Dear Families,

Next week will we will continue Henry and Mudge. We will be working on the comprehension strategy of comparing and contrasting.

In writing we are working on how to answer questions with a complete sentence.

In math, we will be working on Topic 4: Repeated Addition. This Topic introduces concepts of multiplication. Please continue to work on addition and subtraction at home.

Have a great long weekend!

-Mrs. Scott

Coming Up!

- No School tomorrow
Friday October 11
- No School Monday
October 14

THANK YOU SO MUCH!

The kids did an amazing job at the Butterfly Parade! If you were able to attend thank you for coming! I will be posting photos to the Dojo so you can see if you had to miss it.

Thank you so much for attending parent teacher conferences! It was great to see you all!

Homework: No new spelling homework or Family Math this week.

Keep reading for ABC Book Club for October, due October 30
